History:

The McGill Library (Kinnear Library), built in 1940 and originally owned by the Kennecott Mining Company, was donated to White Pine County in 1977. The building has been used as a town hall, an American Legion, and an Emergency Medical Technician meeting place. It has also been used as a training facility for the volunteer Fire Department.

Environmental Work:

A Phase I Environmental Assessment was completed in April 2013. A Phase II Environmental Assessment was underway in May 2014 to determine the presence of any contaminants.

Existing Condition:

A single story building occupies approximately 0.05 acres of the 0.67 acre parcel.

Future Use:

The facility will be used as a library and community meeting place.
